

Prof. Sangmi takes over as Dean College Development Council, KU

Srinagar, April 02: Noted Academic and Finance expert, Prof. Mohiuddin Sangmi has taken over as Dean College Development Council (DCDC), University of Kashmir.

An order to this effect was issued here on Saturday.

Author of five books, 65 research papers published in international/ national journals and 30 articles published in various newspapers, Prof. Sangmi has acted as advisor, Union Public Service Commission, Member of Chief Minister's Task Force on Industrial Development, J&K State Audit Advisory Board under the auspices of Comptroller and Auditor General of India, member of various committees of the NAAC, UGC, MHRD, etc.

In connection with academic discourses, he has visited USA, China, Italy, Germany, France, Vatican, Switzerland and Bhutan. He has held various administrative positions at KU which include Dean, Faculty of Commerce & Management Studies, Director, Directorate of Distance Education, Director, UGC Human Resource Development Center, Head, Department of Business & Financial Studies, Head Department of Commerce and Provost/ Chief Warden.

Besides, being Editor and Chief Editor of the Research Journal -The Business Review. Prof. Sangmi has been the President of the J&K Chapter of the Indian Accounting Association.