

Law Society KU organises “Bahaar-e-Ramadhan” festival 2019

Sheikh-ul-Alam hostel Zakura campus KU hosts Iftaar Party

Srinagar, 1 June: The law Society, School of Law, University of Kashmir (KU) organised “Bahaar-e-Ramadhan” festival 2019 at Department of Law, KU on Saturday.

Registrar KU, Dr Nisar A Mir and Dean Social Sciences, Prof.Asifa Jan were the special guests on the occasion.

While welcoming to the guests and participants Prof. Mohammad Hussain, Head and Dean School of law, KU, said “Law society is the society of students which works for social causes and issues. This month is very auspicious to work for our afterlife and we assure that more of such programs will be organised in future.”

Speaking on the occasion Registrar KU said “I am very happy to be part of this event. I have an old attachment with this department and I want to assure them that all issues faced by the department would be resolved in a time bound manner.”

While talking about the importance of spiritual life, Prof. GN Khaki Provost Boys Hostel KU said“ There are two parts of life, spiritual life and professional life. One needs to balance both of them to live a fulfilling and blissful life.” He requested students to contribute in society building and spreading humanity which are important than scientific discoveries.”

The various events which were organized in the festival included Azaan Competition, Qirat competition, Naat competition, Collage competition, Painting &Calligraphy competition. The festival was attended by students from various law colleges including Vitasta Law College, Sopore Law College, Kashmir Law College Nowshera, School of Legal Studies Central University of Kashmir, & students from Kashmir Law School.

The festival was supported by “SAAYA” and sponsored by JK Bank.

Meanwhile Sheikh- ul-Alam Boys hostel Zakura Campus administration and hostel boarders hosted a grand Iftar party at hostel premises. Dean Academic Affairs KU Prof. Akbar Masood, Registrar Dr. Nisar Ahmad Mir, Dean Colleges Development Council Prof. Mohiuddin Sangmi, Provost Boys Prof. G.N. Khaki and wardens of all the boys hostels, officials from proctorial wing and administration were present on the occasion.

Dr. Javaid A. Sheikh Warden of the hostel said that this is the second time we have organized such a party and it has been very exciting moment. The dignitaries present on the occasion were very impressed by the boarders of hostel for throwing light on Shan-E- Ramadhan. Dr. Nisar Ahmad Mir Registrar University of Kashmir interacted with the boarders and assured them all support and help for the development of the hostel.