wan of the Kashmir University where Prof Talat Ahmad was as the Chief Guest said: “It is an honor that we are organizing Hindi Diwas which actually was scheduled on September 14, 2019 but due to uneasy situation that could not be organized”.

“It is a privilege that our university is organizing “Hindi Diwas”, he said and appreciated the Hindi department for conducted such an event.

Pro Lily Want, Dean School of Arts, Languages and Literature, participated as the Guest of Honor. Head Department of Hindi, Dr Ruby Zuthsi, delivered the welcome address. Dr Zahida Jabeen thanked the guests and other participants. Dr Bharatendu Kumar Pathak moderated the proceedings. Dr. Pathak and Ms Naairah Qureshi were the competition incharges while as renowned broadcaster and poet Satish Vimal and Dr Mehraj-ud-din were the judges.

Prof Talat Ahmad praised the Department of Hindi for conducting the “Hindi Diwas”. “It is very important occasion for the Hindi department, which he said is very old department of the varsity”, he said.

He said it is the basic and very important job of any university to provide quality education to the students.

He said education standards of any university should be very high and simultaneously researches should be conducted on high note so that students could be recognized with the name of their University from where they had completed their studies.

“Kashmir University should be known as the best in the world for its education standards and research programmes”, The Vice Chancellor said and added that research papers should be published in top Journals of the world so that the student should be known where from he has studied”, he said.

The Vice Chancellor admires those students who read their poetry and prose in Hindi before a well packed Gandhi Bhawan auditorium. But also stressed upon the students to improve pronunciation.

The Vice Chancellor said that there is no threat to the Hindi language in view of the vast population of our country. “No doubt English is an international language, but one should also learn and speak Hindi” he added.

He said the Hindi Department of the Kashmir University would be further groomed so that it would provide better education to the students in future.

Vice Chancellor stressed upon the students that they should improve to speak Hindi and correct their pronunciation

He said this is very important for Kashmir students to learn Hindi. “I am happy that students read poetry and prose during the function but I urge them to concentrate to improve pronunciation.

Prof Talat Ahmad stressed on the need to sign Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with other universities to promote Hindi language in Kashmir.

He said the students who will go outside to attend the debates and seminars can improve their Hindi and their pronunciation would be improved in a big way.

“I am sure that the government of India is doing best at their level in promoting Hindi language but we should also do more efforts to boost this language so that it could reach to the vast number of people in Kashmir valley”, Prof Talat Ahmad Said.
