

Extension lecture on “Qudrat-UllahShohab: Art & Thought” held at DDE KU

Srinagar, May 11: An extension lecture in Urdu was delivered by Prof Shohab Enayat Malik Dean Arts and Head, Department of Urdu, University of Jammu at the Directorate of Distance Education (DDE), University of Kashmir on the topic “Qudrat-UllahShohab: Art & Thought” on Saturday.

Prof Malik discussed at length the life and literary contribution of son of this soil with special reference to his novel “Ya Khuda” and autobiography “Shohab Nama”.

The lecture was held in the conference Hall of the Directorate and was attended by a good number of students and numerous scholars.

The lecture was followed by a healthy discussion on different aspects of literature with reference to Qudrat Ullah Shohab.

The lecture was presided over by Dean School of Open Learning Prof. Mushtaq Ahmed while as Director Distance Education Prof. Mahmood Ahmed Khan welcomed the guest and threw light on other activities organised by the directorate in the recent past.

Dr Altaf Hussain Naqashbandi (Department of Urdu, Central University of Kashmir) also spoke on the occasion. Program coordinator Dr Altaf Anjum conducted the session while as Dr Irfan Aalam presented vote of thanks.