KU VC reviews progress of UPSC residential coaching program at CCPC

Srinagar, Feb 4: Vice Chancellor, University of Kashmir (KU), Prof. Nilofer Khan, chaired a review meeting of the UPSC-Civil Services Examination (CSE) Residential Coaching Program at the varsity's Centre for Career Planning and Counselling (CCPC) to assess its progress since its launch in October 2024. #

Currently, 61 students are enrolled at CCPC, benefiting from expert mentorship and a structured learning environment. The coaching is provided in collaboration with top-tier academies to ensure high-quality preparation. #

Prof. Khan lauded the program's rapid progress, stating, "This initiative has transformed into a model ecosystem for civil services preparation. The University remains committed to equipping aspirants with the best resources, mentorship, and academic support."#

The University's first-ever dedicated UPSC residential coaching program provides free coaching, accommodation, study materials, and mock tests to selected candidates.#

The meeting was attended by Dean Research KU, Prof. Mohd. Sultan Bhat, Joint Registrar Budget and Creation KU, Dr. Ashfaq Ahmed Zarri, and Chief Accounts Officer KU Mrs. Zafira Bashir.#

Director CCPC KU, Prof. Nazir Ahmed Dar, along with Dr. Yahya Bakhtiyar and Ms. Fatima Ali, faculty at CCPC, presented a detailed report highlighting the program's achievements and future plans. #

The review highlighted the program's structured mentorship framework, periodic mock tests, and personalized career strategies.#

The initiative reflects the varsity's commitment to providing accessible and high-quality coaching to aspiring civil servants.#
